

Great care is taken in the preparation of your food

No trans fats, No preservatives,
No additives, No artificial stocks,
No artificial flavouring or colouring.

Relax and enjoy the next generation of pubs

Gordon Crookston's Ancestral Home

In the 12th century, the estate in this area belonged to a Robert de Croc (hence Crookston). The castle probably dates from the 14th century and was held for several centuries by the Stewarts of Darnley. At one time the castle was unique in having a tower at each corner (the picture shows the only one which survives). The Stewart family was involved in a ravine in Jamrie IV.